Subject: Rosco Announces Settlement of Legal Dispute with Lucerix

Date: August 27, 2009

Rosco, Inc. today announced a settlement with Lucerix International Corp. ending a legal dispute between the two companies in the Federal Court for the Northern District of New York involving two patents owned by Rosco, Inc., U.S. Patent No. 7,210,800 entitled "Mirror Mounting Assembly" and U.S. Patent No. 7,290,891 ("the '891 patent"), entitled "Dual Mirror Mounting Assembly" that were asserted against Lucerix's Ford Shuttle Mirror Kits.

Under the terms of the agreement, Lucerix agreed to stop selling its Ford Shuttle Mirror Kits with fender mount part number 21.287.AA in the United States. Lucerix also agreed to provide monetary compensation to Rosco. The amount was not disclosed. Lucerix International Corporation is a full spectrum supplier of commercial vehicle mirror products. Lucerix manufactures and distributes interior and exterior mirrors for buses, shuttle buses, delivery vans, and recreational vehicles. An ISO certified company. Lucerix is committed to the best in quality, innovation, and styling.
